I have bought the upgrade off the app store a long time ago. I just want to download the original one so I can take it on the go with my phone. Is there any way to find the serial number without a product key? I have a cracked version of the app, but no serial number. Please help!! (Note: i cant use a computer, cant be near the phone, and i cant send the phone to IT!!!) Download the correct version for your country. The version currently available for your country is designated by the following symbol: "E" (England), "F" (France), "S" (Switzerland), "E1" (Belgium), "C" (Canada), "L" (Luxembourg), "M" (Germany), "N" (Netherlands), "O" (Poland), "S2" (Slovakia), "W" (Wales). Other countries: please follow the instructions to your country. Indeed, you can still re-download the application. The location of the application is shown in your computer or in the directory containing applications The product key is to be activated by the running application. The link to the app has been downloaded from your Facebook account. The link to the app is that of your Facebook account. The link to the app has been sent to your e-mail address. For Apple devices (Mac, iPhone, iPod), you can simply download the application from the iTunes Store. For Android devices (Samsung, HTC, Google...), you can download the application from the Google Play Store. Perform a Google search for the name of your company. Enter the name of your company and press the Search button. The company you are looking for should appear on the first page of the results. Click on your desired name to continue and log in to your company's web page on the new company. The link to your company's web page will be generated and sent to your email address. You can also copy this link and use it to find the correct version for your country You can also follow the link to your company's official web page by clicking on the link "Open the official web site". On the web, the best place to find serial numbers is in the serial key on the underside of your cricut machine. Hello, I would
